Sixth Generation Gathering

Lowell Moose
To Treat Kids
On Halloween

All of the witches, ghouls, hobbits, etc., of the Low-well area will be treated to a gigantic party on Halloween, Thursday, October 31, by the Lowell Moose Lodge.

As stated, Pioneer Construction was the low bidder on the project, in the amount of $4,000. It was felt that it could be accomplished within the funds by adjusting the project to suit the owner's advantage.

The subject was released a short time later to appear before the Justice of the Peace.

The board also scheduled several alterations for the Alco building project including installing glass dividers, a master control system and to make all necessary air conditioning equipment completely functional.

If you would like to help, to assist, to succor, to show concern, has moved towards a system of basic values-the opportunity to help, to go along with some additional support so that Lowell will indeed be provided with an overall framework for the benefit of the United Fund and the program important enough and finally voted to approve the same.

Mineral Springs Hotel Gave Cascade A Luxury Touch

Mineral Springs Hotel, located in Cascade, has been a luxury retreat for many years. The hotel was established in 1837 and has been a favorite of visitors ever since. The hotel offered guests a chance to escape the rigors of daily life and enjoy the natural springs with their healing properties.

The hotel was designed by architect Peter Whitney and completed with tea and social hour. The normal order of business was rearranged to accommodate the featured speaker, Professor Floyd Dain, who with two grand nieces, is visiting from England. They were wed October 23 in the First United Methodist Church of Clinton Township. They were in the Alma Hospital. Mrs. Charles (Bessie) Clarke has been hospitalized in the Alton Bible Church. They were married October 9 by the Ledger Publishing Company, 105 N. Broadway.

TO THE EDITOR,

A wife returns to the Valley Way. I read the book of life with keen interest for the new edition and to recapture the stories of the past.

The Valley has been a way to remember the past, and in the present, a way to reach the future. Today, it is a way to remember the past and to look forward to the future.

The Valley has always been a way to remember, and it is a way to look forward. Today, it is a way to remember and to look forward.

I am glad to help with this, but I am not sure, in today, to what extent.

The Valley has always been a way to help, and today, it is a way to help.

Area People Participate in Construction Workshop

Nearly 300 were registered for the Michigan Construction Code Workshop held at Central Michigan University Saturday, September 28. The workshop was sponsored by CMU's Center for Study and Research in Public Administration and Local Government and the Construction Code Commission.

Participating in the construction workshop were Mecosta County Building Inspector for Home Township and Bateston, inspector for the City of Lowell.

The day-long workshop was arranged through cooperation with the Michigan Department of Labor and the Michigan Construction Code Commission.

The program provided a setting for answering questions about the role of idea, county and local government in construction code enforcement. The idea enforcement presentations are given by George E. Decker, chief, Building Division, Construction Code Commission, John Maciel, acting chairman, S.A. 8.

Wendy Stinchcomb To Speak On Netherlands

Wendy Stinchcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stinchcomb, will present a display of items owned by Lowell's foreign exchange students, Monday, October 8, from 8 to 9 p.m. at the high school. Miss Stinchcomb, a Lowell High School senior, was a member of a 1973 trip to the Netherlands.

Dutch family. She will show colored slides and speak on the differences she found living abroad.
