Hit-Run Driver Given Sentence Driver of Car Pleads Guilty in Death of Boston Township Lad

South Boston is mourning the loss of a young lad, Quinn Seys Blossom, age 11, who was instantly killed when the bicycle upon which he was riding was struck by a hit and run motorist near the home of the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Blossom, on U. S. 16 about 8:30 Thursday evening, Mar. 18.

Quinn was born in Grand Rapids, September 30, 1931, and moved with his parents to South Boston in 1939. He was an enthusiastic 4-H Club worker. In the North Bell school he was popular with teacher and pupils alike, and was especially active in all the salvage drives.

Funeral services were held at Roth's chapel, Lowell, Monday at 2 o'clock, burial beside his paternal grandfather, A. J. Seys in Garfield Park cemetery, Grand Rapids.

Surviving besides his parents are a sister, Susan Lynn, two stepisters, Barbara J. and Catherine L., a stepbrother, Leonard M., and his grandmothers, Mrs. Grace M. Seys and Mrs. Nellie E. Timpon.

Driver Gives Self Up... Ralph Landheer, 28, of route 4, Grand Rapids, was lodged in Kent county jail Friday night after signing a statement in Grand Rapids police headquarters that the car he was driving at about 7:45 p. m. Thursday had struck a boy on a bicycle while he was driving west on US-16.

Landheer was sentenced Tuesday in Circuit Court to six months to five years in Jackson prison when he pleaded guilty to negligent homicide. His act in surrendering brought a lighter sentence than might otherwise have been given by Judge Morris K. Davis of Ionia.

State Troopers Allan McBride and Jack Foster, who had been working on the case, were called and questioned Landheer who at first insisted that he didn't know what he had struck at the time. After close questioning, however, he broke down and admitted that he was aware he had hit the boy and that he became panic stricken and continued on without investigating.

Officers De Skillful Work... Troopers McBride and Foster, who had conducted a day-long search for the hit-run driver, were hot on the trail when Landheer gave himself up. They had recovered, from the scene of the accident, a broken headlight rim and its shattered glass as well as other bits of metal from the death car.

Quinn left the home of his parents about 7:45 p. m. Thursday evening riding his bicycle and bound for the home of Reuben Lee a short distance away. When he failed to return at 10 p. m., Blossom went to look for him and found the body on the highway and the boy's bicycle about 50 feet away in the Lee driveway.

Lowell Poultryman Wins High Honors

Nationwide recognition as one of the country's outstanding poultrymen was given to E. C. Foreman of the Foreman Poultry Farm, Lowell, Mich., according to press dispatches from Chicago last Thursday, when he was nominated as "blue ribbon poultryman" on the "man on the farm" program.

Foreman was honored for having the largest number of Leghorn hens registered in the council of official American egg laying contests. He also had the largest number of "high honor roll" pens in contests of any Leghorn breeder.

Uncle Sam's grocery bill for feeding enlisted men runs to $2,800,000 a day, at the rate of 56 cents a day for each Army man.

Along Main Street... The Lowell Creamery is making rather extensive improvements, having moved the office around to make room for a new refrigerator counter.

High water conditions which prevailed here for several days last week have receded, and conditions are again practically normal. At one time water reached a depth of as much as four feet in store basements, and a goodly number of residential cellars were flooded in some sections of the town.

Mrs. George DeGraw in charge of the local office, announces that the ration board will be open daily from 9 to 5 o'clock except Wednesday, when it will close at noon. Retailers' bulletins concerning ceiling prices on pork are now available at the ration board; also bulletins on point rationing and processed foods.

We hear via the grapevine telegraph that among the new stories to be published within the next few weeks is one by Glendon Swarthout, formerly of Lowell, now residing in Ann Arbor, where he occupies a position as foreman in a defense plant. Ledger readers will remember Mr. Swarthout as the writer of an interesting series of articles from the Caribbean Sea area.

H. D. Hudson, president of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, died in Chicago last Sunday at the age of 82 years. He was also president of the H. D. Hudson Company of Hastings, Minn.

Mr. Hudson had visited Lowell at various times and on some occasions had been principal speaker at Board of Trade meetings. His son, Robert Hudson, now serving as vice president of the Hudson companies, will be promoted to the presidency, according to reports.

Two Amendments To Be Submitted One Proposal Would Have Twp. Officers Elected For Two Years

Citizens who go to the polls on Monday, April 5th, to cast their ballots for the few state and other offices which are to be elected at that time will also have the opportunity presented to them to vote one way or the other on two proposed amendments to the state constitution, one of which, Proposal No. 1, if carried by the voters of the state, would have all township officers elected to hold office for a period of two years instead of the present one year terms which have always been customary.

Proposal No. 1... Sec. 18. There shall be elected on the first Monday of April in each odd numbered year for a term of 2 years in each organized township 1 supervisor, 1 township clerk, 1 commissioner of highways, 1 township treasurer, and not to exceed 4 constables, whose powers and duties shall be prescribed by law.

Proposal No. 2... The second amendment deals with long time mortgages, somewhat out of the regular order and reads as follows: Sec. 2. Every homestead of not exceeding 40 acres of land and the dwelling house thereon and the appurtenances to be selected by the owner thereof and not included in any town plat, city or village; or instead thereof, at the option of the owner, any lot in any city, village or recorded town plat, or such parts of lots as shall be equal thereto, and the dwelling house thereon and its appurtenances, owned and occupied by any resident of the state, not exceeding in value $2,500.00 shall be exempt from forced sale on execution or any other final process from a court. Such exemption shall not extend to any mortgage lawfully obtained, but such mortgage or other alienation of such land by the owner thereof, if a married man, shall not be valid without the signature of his wife to the same.

Give Generously To the Red Cross

The Red Cross drive for Lowell and vicinity is now under way under the chairmanship of Mrs. Chas. Doyle who, assisted by her committee, will make a house to house canvass until every home in the community has been reached. It is hoped that people will come forward voluntarily with their contributions so as to save the committee as much as possible in this work. Every citizen should be fully aware of the urgency of this appeal and the need for greater gifts than ever before.

Mrs. Doyle notes, with some significance, that her first contribution of $5, came through the mail from a soldier, Sgt. Orison Weaver, on the Pacific Coast, who writes that he knew his contribution was needed as never before and hoped it would do some good for his friends in service. Attention is called to the full page announcement in this week's Ledger which is sponsored through the generosity of E. C. Foreman, proprietor of the Foreman Poultry Farm. Readers should especially note the paragraph by Norman H. Davis, president of the American Red Cross, who ably sums up the great work of this organization. The following ladies will assist Mrs. Doyle in the house-to-house canvass. Do not turn them away. Mrs. Harold Englehardt, Mrs. Martin Houseman, Mrs. Theron Richmond, Mrs. Wm. S. Doyle, Mrs. N. E. Borgerson, Mrs. Ray Rogers, Mrs. Ray Avery, Mrs. Frank Newell, Mrs. R. W. Bettes, Mrs. Orval Jessup, Mrs. George Lundberg, Mrs. Wilber Burras, Mrs. Howard Bartlett and Supervisor Frank L. Houghton.

The announcement on page 7 contains the names of the chairmen who have been appointed for the Red Cross war fund drive in various townships in the eastern part of Kent County. Phone or send your news to the Ledger. It pays to advertise in the Ledger.

Measles Epidemic Warning Issued

From reports of eight cases received this week, it appears that Lowell and vicinity is in for an epidemic of measles. According to the cycle of measles epidemics, this outbreak is a year early. Measles tends to recur about once in three years. The last epidemic in Lowell occurred in March and April of 1941.

Measles is very highly contagious, especially so during the fever stage before the eruption appears. Measles also may become serious. Pneumonia sometimes develops following the bronchitis which usually accompanies measles. Lowell has a serious shortage of doctors, and parents can help materially to relieve the doctor's load by keeping children with symptoms of a cold at home and thus prevent the spread of the disease. When no doctor is in attendance, parents are legally required to report the cases promptly to the local health officer.

Wins His Wings

Lieut. John A. (Jack) Simon

Lieut. Jack Simon, son of Dan Simon of Lowell and Mrs. Geraldine Simon of Grand Rapids, received his wings and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces at Foster Field, Texas, Saturday, March 20. He expects to go into active duty immediately with the 31st Fighter Squadron, according to a letter recently received by his father. Jack was very well known in Lowell, having attended school here many years and graduated from Central High School, Grand Rapids in 1941. He is a lieutenant in the R. O. T. C. here. He joined the Air Force in August, 1941, and was radio instructor at Scott Field, Ill., for some time. He later was transferred to San Antonio, Texas, where he started his cadet training, completing the advanced course at Foster Field where he graduated as a pilot.

Tim Can Drive Now Under Way

Every Citizen Urged To Give Cooperation

The lowly tin can has become a vital part in our program of defense. Our government is in critical need of tin and metal and, properly salvaged, tin cans will do much to relieve the shortage. Supt. W. W. Gumsier, the coordinator, states that Mrs. D. L. Dickerson is in charge of the drive in Lowell which will take place on Friday, April 2, and she will be assisted by the village, the County Road Commission and the schools. It is hoped and expected that Lowell will do its part.

Cans not wanted are conical top beer cans and those which contained motor oils, paint, varnish and evaporated or condensed milk. All other cans, except those that have become much rusted are wanted. All labels must be removed. Each can must be washed thoroughly and the top and bottom must be removed or nearly removed so that the can may be flattened by stepping on it. It should be noted that the can should not be hammered or pounded. If the top or bottom has been completely removed it should be put inside of the can before it is flattened.

These instructions must be followed to the letter because of the process involved in reclaiming the materials. School children will collect the cans on Friday, April 2, and take them to the school garage. Large donations will be picked up by the village trucks on the same day, and citizens are asked to leave them at the curb. Phone calls will be taken at the school. On Saturday the county truck will take the cans to Grand Rapids. Nothing will be paid for the materials or service. This will be another opportunity to show our patriotism and our willingness to cooperate. Let's put it over big.

Vergennes to Vote On Caucus System

Citizens of Vergennes township have signed a petition asking that the township return to the caucus system of nominating candidates for office as provided under provisions of the Michigan election law and in compliance with that request the proposal will be submitted to the voters of Vergennes at the coming spring election. There has been more or less dislike of the plan of making nominations which has been in vogue in the township for the past three or four years. Vergennes Republicans have nominated the following ticket which will be unopposed: Supervisor, Edwin D. Mueller; clerk, Elmer Wittenbach; treasurer, Verlice Franks; highway commissioner, Guy Ford; justice of the peace, R. Bruce Tower; board of review, Karl Bieri; constables, Carl Kroff, Albert Ford, William Mueller, Frank-Jones.

Lowell Represented At Federation Meet

At the State Federation of Women's Clubs which convened in Jackson, Mich. on Wednesday through Saturday, March 26-27-28, Mrs. George Johnson was official representative of the Lowell Club, of which she is president. Other local women who took part in the convention were Mrs. W. W. Gumsier, west central district president, who presided at the district luncheon and gave the annual report of activities of her district. Mrs. R. D. Hahn, state chairman of library service, appeared on a war service forum and Mrs. E. G. Jeffers served on the state nominating committee. The speaker at the district luncheon was a former pastor of the Lowell Congregational church, Rev. Samuel Wenger, who is now chaplain of the state prison at Jackson. Mrs. Wenger was also a guest at the luncheon. The theme of the whole convention was war service. Two of the outstanding speakers were Mrs. John L. Whitehurst of Washington, D. C., national president of the federation, and Dr. Preston Bradley of Chicago.

"Life is just an eternal struggle to keep one's earning capacity up to one's yearning capacity."

UP and DOWN

The Farm Woodlot Takes Prominence

Ira Bull, extension forester from Michigan State College stopped in the office the other day to tell us about a new service, or rather an expanded one from his office. War needs of lumber are bringing the farm woodlot into prominence as a source of lumber both for industry and farm use. Small saw mills are busy, and owners of lumber have many opportunities to sell. Farmers with woodlots have a chance to market a lumber crop.

The college forestry department and the U. S. D. A. have placed a district farm forester in this area to help farmers market their timber crop. The man to do this job is Mr. M. N. Stiekney, of Oakland county. Mr. Stiekney has had experience with the federal forest service and in C. C. camps. His job is to help the farmer select trees, estimate board feet in standing trees, find local mills for sawing lumber, and aid in the sale of timber. He will also counsel with farm timber owners in regard to the care of handling of the woodlot.

His territory will cover Kent and Ionia counties with parts of Clinton, Montcalm and Grand Traverse. For his services should be made to County Farm Agent K. K. Vining, 201 Y. M. C. A. Building, Grand Rapids.

Important Notice Regarding Salvage

Even though we are rationed on fats, don't forget to strain every drop you can spare into a can, not a bottle, and when you have a pound take to a local market. Just one tablespoonful a day from each household will keep the ammunition flowing to our soldiers, and allies. Fish oil and poultry fryings are acceptable, while they are not very satisfactory for cooking purposes. It is up to every woman in this land to help bring this devastating war to an end as soon as possible—before millions more lose their lives.

Be sure to have your old silk and nylon socks and stockings in the box provided at Weekes' dry goods store. This material will then be reprocessed and reweoven into bags which hold the gunpowder used in detonating the shells in the big guns.

Rayon hose and silk yard goods are not wanted because they cannot be reworked by the same machines used in processing silk and nylon hose. Then too, rayon and yard goods made into powder bags would not burn up as completely as nylon and all-silk does, thus leaving a residue or ashes in the gun.

Mrs. Robert Hahn, Local Salvage Comm.
