PESSIMISM ABOUT PEACE

COME PROPHETS take a rather doomy view of the prospects for g peace, and feel that the nts and treaties that will this war are likely to be just as poorly framed as those folowing the first world war, which failed to provide permanent solutions for the world's troubles. They see the same old faults of human this time, and the same lack of foresight that got the world into trouble before.

Certain lessons of the present war are so very obvious that it child Guidance the United States could forget to ignore them. Almost eveybody is able to see now that this war came about mainly because Germany and Japan built up extremely strong equipment while Britain and the United States were very inadequately prepared. Also the Russian military preparation was limited sure they could overcome it.

United States, Britain, and Russia sented its recommendations, which, 9 o'clock Thursday evening, and unthey would see that they just had recommendations are as follows: step on it before it got very
