FOUR STORES GOING UP G. KOPF'S SUDDEN DEATH

Work Began Monday.

The burned distrist will soon be covered with handsome two-story brick store buildings. Four of the brick buildings destroyed by the terrible fire of April 11 will be succeeded by new buildings which it is proposed to have ready for occupancy on or before August 1.

This much was settled by negotiations which were completed Satur-tions which were completed Satur-day, when the N. A. Stone lot (where the Nicholson store was) became the property of Marks Ruben and the J. C. West lot (where the Sturgis drug C. West lot (where the Sturgis drug store stood) passed to the possession of Loveland & Hinyan. M. C. Bishop will rebuild, where the bazaar store was; and Dr. McDannell and Mrs. B. J. Peck will rebuild on their lot. With the repairing of the saloon building, owned by the Grand Rapids Brewery company, which is now underway, and the erection of a new building on the Scott lot the replacing of the brick row w. uld be complete.

Mr. Scott is getting along in years and dreads the worry and care of rebuilding: but will doubtless see it to be to his interests either to join in the work of building or else to part pects to have a fine office in his former location. Unless the J. C. Scott lot is built upon at once, Dr. M. C.

Greene will have an office over the west part of the Ruben store.
A large gang of men was at work
bright and early Monday morning removing the rubbish from the burned-over lots and cleaning and carting away the good brick for use in rebuilding. The new building will be wired for electric lights and be
of modern and convenient construction.

He was the owner of one of the wooden buildings that were burned in April, and shortly bewere burned in April, and shortly before his death was planning to erect a good building in its place. Deceased was a strong looking man, supposed by his family to be in good health, and his sudden illness and death was a shock to his many friends. He was down town Tuesday morning and again at noon, and on Wednesday was taken so severely ill as to be unable to leave the house. He was able to be out in the yard Saturday afternoon, but a change for the worse came Sunday morning, and he failed rapidly until the time of his death. He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his wife, five sons and one daughter: Goodrich Kopf of Lowell, John of Houston, Texas, Frank of Portland, Ore., Lorenzo and Willie of the warship Wisconsin, and Miss Adeline also of this village. Mr. Kopf was expecting Lorenzo home very soon, and it is much regretted that he could not be here before his father was called.

JAMES EASTERBY DEAD.

Century.

James Easterby was born in Bentham, Yorkshire, England, Feb. 1, 1829, and died at his home in South Lowell May 11, 1905. At the age of twenty-four years he was married to Ann Proctor of Bentham, England, and they, in company with her par-ents, came to Michigan in 1853. He and his wife spent one year on a and his wife spent one year on a farm in Wayne county, after which they came to Lowell and bought the quarter section of land in South Lowell, the nucleus of the large farm which he cleared and made into the beautiful home where he has lived for fifty-one years.

He was truly a pioneer, working with indomitable will and energy to do his part in clearing the forest and improving the new country. Faithful to the task he had undertaken, his purpose never failed and for more than forty years he was actively engaged in beautifying and improving the home he loved. His wife and coworker was taken from him by death nearly eighteen years ago, and this loss to him was so great that he never quite recovered his former cheerfulness.

He leaves to mourn their irrepara He leaves to mourn their irreparable loss four sons and four daughters all of whom were with him during the last days of his illness. The sons are Joseph, James and Merton Easterby, who live on the farm, and Miles of Detroit. The daughters are Mrs. George Lewis of West Lowell, Mrs. L. A. Hastings of Andover, S. Dak., Mrs. John Kopf of Houston, Texas, and Anna Easterby, who has been her father's faithful attendant and homekeeper since her mother's and homekeeper since her mother's death. The funeral was held from his late residence Saturday and he was laid to rest in the Merriman cemetery, beside his late wife.—[Com.

Deter Cutier, who settled on a farm at White's bridge, in Ottsec, that they must obey the law, the President stated a simple truth; but one that strike breeders have been long in learning. The public has no patience whatever with slugging, brick-throwing and murder; and if abor unions desire to preserve their organizations, they will rid themselves of this amarchistic element and assist in the punishment of all criminals, even though they belong to the union.

Bigotte partisans who are largely responsible for the ills that beact us, and who make reforms, such as are advocated by President Rooseveit, difficult of attainment, are becoming delightfully lewer. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."
