Who wants a TEMPORARY Memorial ?

The sentiment which induces the erection of a memorial, and the very word itself, demand permanence.

That is the first quality to be considered in choosing monumental material.

The Lowell Granite & Marble Works can furnish what you wish.

How to Cure a Cold

LAXATIVE COLD TABLETS.

These tablets, if you keep a box in the house ready for instant use when the cold begins to manifest itself, will knock it out nine times in ten.

Don't take chances of having to worry through the winter with one cold on top of another. 25c will save you all that trouble.

ONE MORE DEATH

Charged to Lowell Boozie. Ionia Man Died of Exposure.

Prosecuting Attorney Watt and another Ionia county official were in Lowell yesterday in connection with the following case narrated in The Ionia Sentinel of October 25.

A man who had given his name as James Smith of Ionia, is in the Densmore undertaking establishment at Saranac having died Tuesday from ex-posure after being found in the road near the home of Louis Eddy of Berlin. The man was returning from Lowell on the 4:03 train and being strongly intoxicated, was put off at Saranac at about 3:45 o'clock Monday. He remained about town until evening, giving out the information to different persons that he was from Ionia.

Some time during the evening Smith was picked up by Louis Eddy, who lives about three miles east of Saranac, and given a ride. During the course of his conversation, which appeared very wandering and illogical, he stated that he was 52 years old and worked at the Hayes-Ionia company.

Upon arrival at his home, Mr. Eddy offered to keep the man over night and give him a bed on the floor. The idea evidently did not appeal to Smith, who stated that he had two warm rooms and a real bed of his own in Ionia, whereupon he left the house intending to walk to Ionia.

He was found in the morning by Mr. Eddy a short distance from the house, lying in a ditch.
Upon leaving the house the night before he had had his coat and hat on, but was minus them when found in the morning, and they were nowhere to be found. It is thought that when he started to walk to Ionia he became confused and wandered back to his starting place, too drunk to enter the house or call for help, living but died shortly after being taken to the house, from where he was removed to the Densmore mortuary in Saranac.

Sheriff Lowrey was notified of his death and as far as could be learned, Smith had been rooming at the Hudson apartments, which place he left Sunday, saying he was going to Lowell. He has no known relatives and no papers of any kind were found on his person, the only things in his pockets being a collection of miscellaneous articles, such as knife, keys, etc., 14 cents in money and four quarts of whisky.

GOES TO MUSKEGON

Herman Strong Enters Partnership in That City.

Herman Strong, who has been in the bakery business here for a number of years, has formed a partnership with a prominent Muskegon grocer under the style of Wilkinson & Co., and will move his bakery outfit to that city at once. The company has a string of five grocery stores; and Mr. Strong will "do" the baked goods for all of them, assuring him a substantial business from the start.

As houses are scarce in Muskegon, the Strong's will not break up their home during the winter. Mrs. Strong and her little son will remain here and Herman will get home as often as business will permit.

It is not their purpose to part with the home, as they like Lowell and expect to return here some day.

Mr. Strong is an excellent baker and is a man of many likeable qualities. His Lowell friends will wish for him the best of success in his Muskegon venture.

CHANGES SOON MADE

Clark Grocery Has Changed Hands Three Times.

J. W. Morse of Grand Rapids is the present owner of the John Clark grocery, the last transfer being the last of three to take place in as many weeks.

October 9, Mr. Clark sold his business to F. D. Vos of Grand Rapids.

Last Thursday Vos resold to Mr. Clark and on Saturday, the latter disposed of the stock and business to Mr. Morse.

The last deal makes necessary the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Clark to Grand Rapids for the winter, having exchanged homes with Mr. Morse for that period, that being a condition insisted upon by the latter in making the deal.

Both removals will take place this week.

Lalley's Overcoat Specials Will Save You Money.

See John J. Lalley's money-saving special on boys' overcoats for Saturday, Nov. 3.
Now's the time to buy, when you need the goods and get a bargain. On account of bad weather, the special offer on men's $20 trench overcoats, advertised last week is repeated for Saturday, Nov. 3. Read the ads in last week's paper and in this; and improve this fine and reasonable money-saving opportunity.

THE LYCEUM COURSE

Opens Nov. 14 with Thomas Brooks Fletcher Lecture.

The Citizens Lyceum course opens at the City hall Nov. 14 with a lecture by Thomas Brooks Fletcher.

The Smith-Spring-Holmes company comes January 23.
These people have been here before and gave a splendid program. Their return will be awaited with interest.

The Musical Guardsmen, an aggregation of six young men, singers and masters of a variety of musical instruments.
They appear here February 6 in a popular program.

John B. Ratto, styled the prince of impersonators, comes March 21.

Seats for the entire course can be reserved without extra charge now at Williams' store, at prices within the reach of all.
Remember, there will be no Chautauqua here next season and don't let the winter lecture and entertainment course die for lack of support.

A MIDNIGHT BLAZE

House of Hayes, Rolf Guttered Saturday Night.

The house of Hayes Rolf was completely gutted by fire of unknown origin about twelve o'clock Saturday night. The fire started on the chamber floor and Mrs. Rolf and two children had to leave the house without dressing, so hurried was their flight. Mr. Rolf was in Ada at an Odd Fellow meeting and the oldest girl was also away from the home.

A part of the household goods on the ground floor was saved and the loss on building and contents is partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Rolf and the children are staying temporarily with her brother, Frank Sargent and Mr. Rolf is boarding at Scotty's and continuing his work at the Cutter factory, while awaiting the adjustment of his loss.

Mrs. J. W. Broadbent Dead.

Anna Coleman Broadbent, a former well-known resident of Lowell, died Thursday, Oct.
25, at her home, No. 35 Fitzburgh avenue, Grand Rapids.
Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, and the body was brought to Lowell for burial in Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Broadbent is survived by her husband, John W., two sons and one daughter, Harry and Erna of Grand Rapids and William of Kansas City, Mo.; a brother, William S. Coleman of Grand Rapids, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Coleman of Owosso.

ENDLESS CHAIN FAKE

Some One in Lowell Has Time To Burn.

The following letters are self explanatory and show how one Lowell woman meets attempts at intimidation.

Editor Ledger: Dear Sir: Will you please let me answer my unknown friend through your paper? As I have no other way of sending an answer, I enclose the letter I want answered so you may understand my request.

I am respectfully,
Mrs. Milo Johnson.
Endless Chain.

O Lord, in Heaven, I implore thee to bless our Sailors and Soldiers and keep them from all harm and bring them back to dwell with thee for Jesus' sake.—Amen!

This prayer has been sent to me and I am sending it to you to spread abroad, so do likewise. It is to be sent all over the world; try it and see what happens.

This prayer was done in ancient times. All who took heed was free and all who failed to do so met with misfortune. Send one for seven days to seven different persons and on the seventh day you will receive great pay. Start this as soon as you read this. Do not break the chain.

From a Friend.

To my unknown friend:

In answer to the letter I received of the 25th, I can find a better use for my time and money than to write and mail threats, also give my friends credit enough, to know how to pray, without any threats from me. I have not, or will not, send any, so you may bring on the misfortune, I will try to meet it. If I cannot, I will fall under it.

Mrs. Milo Johnson.

Lowell Literary Club.

Federation day of the L. L.
C. was held at the home of Mrs.
A. B. Cadwallader Wednesday, Oct. 31. After a short business meeting, our president gave us a very interesting report of the Federation, which was enjoyed by all present.

The hostess played several selections on the Brunswick and the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. G. M. Winegar Wednesday, Nov. 14.

Cor. Sec.

It May Concern You!

The thing about the Brunswick phonograph that appeals first to a prospective customer is that it plays ALL records.

Naturally the first thought that comes into a buyer's mind when I tell him this is "Yes, but does it play them well?"
Of course, I say, "It does." If I had not been convinced of that, I would never be selling Brunswick phonographs, but after all it is not MY opinion that will persuade you to buy a Brunswick, but YOUR OWN conviction.

So the safest and surest way to decide a question like this is to come down to my store and let me play your favorite records for you. It makes no difference whether they are Victor, Edison, Columbia, Pathe, or some of the cheaper makes. The Brunswick possively plays them all. Brunswick owners say it really plays them better than the machine for which they were intended.

While I always try to tell the real truth about the merchandise I sell, I go even further than that. I never make a statement which I cannot back up with the invitation. "Come and see it, hear it, and then do not buy unless you are convinced."

A. B. Cadwallader.

TALC JONTEEL

The New Talc with the $100,000 Odor

Jasmine from sunny France, Patchouli from dusky India, Demure Lavendar from old England, Aromatic labdanum from the Bible lands, Bois de Rose from Guiana—these and nearly a score of other scents, gathered in the flower gardens of the whole world, interblend their fragrance in Jonteel, the delightful New Odor of Twenty-six Flowers

The advent of Jonteel marks the first time that a costly odor, incorporated in Talc of highest quality, has been offered for sale at a popular price—25c.

| Face PowderJonteel                          | Combination CreamJonteel                      |
|---|---|
| Adheres to the skin.Large size packages 50c | No finer cream made.In liberal sized jars 50c |

Jonteel is called the $100,000.00 odor because this much and more was spent on designs, experiments and investigations before a single jar was sold.

Special Silverware Sale

SILVER has advanced to the highest price known in our experience and the products are necessarily very high. However most of our large stock of staple silverware was purchased before the highest prices were reached, therefore we are able to sell from our present supply at only slightly advanced prices. If in need of silverware of any kind for future use it is wise to make your purchases now for prices will surely be much higher very soon.

We have some very beautiful chests of silver that would make fine wedding or Christmas presents that we are able to make very low prices on, while they last. Look our stock over and compare prices with any others you wish and you will be convinced that your money will go farther here than elsewhere.
