LEDGER ENTRIES

THE BEST DEVELOPMENT

What should be the first aim of those who seek to develop their home towns? Should it be for population growth, or to make a better and more attractive town?

Two of the most practical aims are the effort to draw in trade from the outside country, and to improve the town life in all possible ways. In these times when people travel long distances in their automobiles, trade can be drawn for many miles. If the town has excellent advantages, if its schools, churches and various institutions are maintained on a high standard, if it has abundant chances for recreation, if life is made pleasant in the community, it naturally attracts people and its population is likely to grow.

THE "BOOSTER" SPIRIT

In past years the type of people sometimes called "boosters" have been active in promoting the growth and development of Lowell. They were ambitious to see their community grow in population, attract new industries, obtain more trade, and develop more prosperity. They have also worked for greater advantages in the home town. They have worked tirelessly through their organizations and individual contacts.

The amount of effort and work which such people have put into such promotion efforts has been truly admirable. Their thought was constantly on what they could do to develop and improve the home town. They would often talk to strangers and visitors, telling of the advantages of their home community, with the hope that perhaps some of these people could be persuaded to locate here.

Communities owe a great deal to people who thus had the interest of their home town so deeply at heart, and they have accomplished many things for progress.

DOG DAYS

The dog days of midsummer are a time when people ordinarily expect hot weather. The term comes from ancient times, when people saw Sirius the dog star rising at about this time of year. So the period near his rising was called the dog days. It seems unfair to connect the dogs with the unpleasant features of this period. Those friendly pets do not have the languid traits that one associates with dog day weather. They are ready for activity in dog days or any time, and they always welcome a good walk with a chance to jump and run and express their joy by noisy barking.

Dog days see summer at its hottest point. People who are not used to outdoor life, should be careful not to overdo in the hot sun. The swim or bath in river, lake, or ocean is one grand consolation in dog days.

MISPLACED BRAINS

The people are told to use their brains, but some use them too well. Some people have a mental power which they use in crimes and frauds and slick and smart tricks. Some crimes call for skillful planning. One imagines that robberies of payrolls and banks are carefully planned, and rehearsed like a scene in a theater, in which every actor knows just what he is going to do.

Brain power used in fraud and crime is a pathetic loss. The crook may congratulate himself on his smartness. In reality he is surprisingly dull, in that he has failed to see that the mental power he used in his lawless deeds would win him success in business, and give him an honored place in the community. Now he is merely an outcast, with whom the forces of justice will catch up sooner or later.

SPORTS AND CHARACTER

"I never knew a golfer who had a bad character," was the remark once attributed to a famous man. Does the practice of sports improve people's character? Most golfers will say they see no evidence of cheating in their favorite game.

Lawn tennis can be called a gentleman's and lady's game, in which players would rather lose a point than give an impression of cheating. Baseball is a grand game, and it teaches lessons of fair play, obedience to rules, and players are taught to play like gentlemen. It is a useful experience for any youth to play on a ball team.

The same thing is true of sports generally, and they are an important factor in developing character. Young people who get such ideas are thereby started along the path of good citizenship, which enables anyone to make a real contribution to his home town and country.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Ormand L. Lyons, 22, Lowell; Frieda Catherine Russell, 19, Alto.

Robert Glen Woodman, 21, St. Louis, Mich.; Betta Damaris Lawton, 20, Lowell.

A preacher asserts there will be no marriages in heaven—husbands are turning over a new leaf.

Lowell public schools will reopen Monday, Sept. 9.

L. E. Johnson has been granted permission by the P. C. A. to go ahead with the construction of his salesroom on west Main Street.

Paul Hilton, proprietor of Hilton Orchards, states that it is not necessary to use sugar when canning peaches and that they will taste every bit as good when sweetened at time of eating. They will also keep just as well and that is a big advantage when sugar is scarce.

Wednesday, August 14, was V-J Day, also the annual community picnic sponsored by the Lowell Board of Trade. Practically all stores were closed for the occasion, but not so at Fallsburg park, where hundreds of people saw the program of sports and listened to the fine V-J Day program sponsored by the Clark-Ellis Post of the American Legion, which featured an address by Dr. Jacob Prins, music by the band and vocal numbers, picnic supper and dancing.

Editor Muri H. DeFoe, editor of the Charlotte Republican-Tribune, pays Lowell a nice compliment as follows:

"The return of the Lowell Showboat is about the first real sign that peace has come over the land. Canceled during the war days this old entertainment favorite came back last week with the old glamour and expanding popularity and served immediate notice on its sponsors that early and added seating capacity is the No. 1 alteration. The whole enterprise is a fine tribute to the civic solidarity and pride of this little city. Many persons must be responsible for all this detail but we shall take the usual hazard to mention but two, N. E. Bergerson, the creator of the idea, and 'Admiral' C. H. Runciman, who has been the interlocutor from the initial trip of Showboat. A great idea, a great show and community publicity of the pleasant and permanent value."

4-H HAPPY COOKS & CANNERS

One Roth was hostess to members and friends of her 4-H club with a party of games at her home Saturday afternoon. Honors were received by Mrs. O. K. Graham, Susan Krum, Betty Flocker, Elizabeth Yeiter and Yvonne Shade. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

We look upon others as being unreasonable because they do not agree with us, while the world accepts them as being wise.

History of the Lowell Showboat

Editors Note.—Below will be found the concluding installment of the history of the Lowell Showboat, prepared by Thelma Peckham Hahn.

1940 Showboat

The Lowell High School Band, under the direction of Orval Jessup and numbering 53 members, was the guest of the Lowell Board of Trade and the Lowell Showboat at the ball game last Saturday (July, 1940) in Detroit. Accompanying the Band were 65 Lowell business and professional men. All were on hand in front of the Michigan Theater at 12:45 to appear on the "Fan-on-the-Street" radio program. O. H. Runciman answered many questions about the Showboat. The entire group sang, "Here Comes the Showboat."

The dates were July 31, Aug. 1, 2, 3. After Frank McMahon consulted with Westinghouse officials, the stage was brilliantly lighted with a new high powered spotlight, 3 narrow beam spotlights and 2 half mile spotlights. The Fritz Family, a Hillbilly Specialty from Lansing, entertained the waiting crowds. Robert E. Lee the 9th was a 9 foot craft and du'christianized by the National Cherry Queen, Miss Barbara Brown. Chairman Christiansen, with the aid of Byrne McMahon and Ray Avery, decorated the boat in red, white and blue foil with specially designed shields. Engineers Frank Stephens and Bob Starkey brought the boat around the sharp curve with the gracefulness of an ocean liner. On Friday night, Gov. Luren D. Dickerson rode on the boat and was introduced to the crowd by Melville B. McPherson, Frank McGowan was again director.

The End Men were: Walter Kropf, George Pappin, Clint Hall, Forrest Buck, Ted Elliott, John Roth. There were 21 acts—Steph Warion and his 13 piece colored band, the Dorothy Byron Dancing Girls, Morlok Quads, 8 singing Marines and the Stevens Bros. with their Wrestling Bear with Eddie Peabody, the Banjo King, for popularity. Many will remember the hot afternoon that Eddie Peabody spent drilling the colored orchestra in the high school gymnasium.

FIFTY-FOURTH YEAR

Sprayer Employees Had Grand Time At 3rd Annual Picnic

The third annual picnic of the Lowell Manufacturing Company was held August 3, 1940, at Fallsburg Park with about 400 people in attendance. Activities started off with a grand display of the prizes donated by the merchants of Lowell. Dinner was served about 12:30 with everything imaginable there to eat and lots of it. When dinner was finished, ice cream and cake was served. Accompanying dinner were records played over the new public address system furnished by Ray Avery. Incidentally, the chin-music was furnished by Captain Bill Welch. The Captain welcomed to the picnic Earl Dowling and Pearl Jones, two employees who have been absent from their work for quite sometime on account of illness.

Following dinner there were about 8 games of Tingo played with Jack Winks at the microphone. During this time the small children looked for pennies in piles of sawdust, and played midway games along with the older people.

A prize was awarded to Mrs. Frances Dollaway for being the oldest person present and to Pearl Jones for the oldest employee present. Asa Kelley received a prize for having the largest family. Later there was a tug-of-war between the day and night shifts, which was won by the day crew—then, the greased pig was turned loose and there was a mad scramble, but Bill Clark landed on top of the pig first. Next came the drawing for the remaining prizes, such as cash and merchandise donated by Lowell merchants Chris Leonard and Mr. Harshberger of Grand Rapids were on hand to take pictures, which will be on sale soon. After that everyone went up to the ball park and enjoyed a softball game which was played between the day and night shifts, the day shift winning 23 to 17.

EXHIBIT YOUR FLOWERS AT THE 4-H CLUB FAIR

Have your flower displays ready for the 4-H fair exhibit at the grounds before 11 o'clock on Wednesday, August 21, so it will be judged at that time. Anyone having flowers are eligible to enter as many as they desire, bouquets, plants or individual blooms. It is hoped all you who have flowers will exhibit them.

New Arena Is For Use Of All People

The Arena, which has been under construction for sometime at Recreation Park, has now been completed and will be used for the first time for the Wild West Rodeo next Sunday, August 18, starting at 2:30 in the afternoon. The Arena is 350 x 150, surrounded with fencing in which is located the judge's stand. The sponsor of the enterprise is the Clark-Ellis Post of the American Legion and is to be used for all community enterprises such as 4-H clubs, etc.

The new arena is said to be one of the best in the state. C. H. Runciman donated the material for the arena and members of the Lowell Riding Club the painting and other work. The Riding Club officers are as follows: Walter Blakeslee, president; Harry Mathews, vice president; Mrs. Flossie Sherman, secretary; Mrs. Lester Antonides, treasurer.

Orders Placed For Magnificent Trains By Chesapeake & O.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company and its companion lines, the Nickel Plate and the Pere Marquette, are contemplating complete replacement of all of their main line passenger equipment, it has been announced by Robert R. Young, Board Chairman of the C & O.

Inquiries have been placed with carbuilders for the new equipment needed to complete the replacement program and Mr. Young has stated this equipment "should be the finest ever placed in operation on the railroads."

The equipment embraced in the inquiries addressed to the car manufacturers would supplement that of the two streamlined "Pere Marquette" which were commissioned in regular service last Saturday on the Detroit-Lansing-Grand Rapids run. They would supply also the units for other crack trains on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway which already has under construction two de luxe streamliners, forecast by executives of the Chesapeake & Ohio as the "finest trains in the world."

These streamliners, being built by the Edward G. Budd Manufacturing Company, will introduce many new features conducive to passenger comfort and safety, including ultra modern air purification and sanitation, and observation vista domes. They will include a moving picture theater, a dining system that will eliminate waiting for meals, art and industrial exhibits, news ticker, travelog and library service, curved aisles for smooth passage through trains, spacious lounge area in every coach, special facilities for the care and entertainment of children, and telephone for passenger use while train is in motion.

Kent's 4-H Club Fair Offers Grand Program

The 12th Annual Show At Recreation Park, Lowell, Next Week Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 21, 22 and 23, Will Give Visitors The Very Best in High Grade Entertainment

Editors Note.—The following article describing the features of the 4-H Club Fair is taken from K. K. Vining's "Up and Down Kent County Roads."

Who are the best cross-cut saw operators in the county? Ralph Roth of Vergennes, who is chairman of the entertainment committee for the 4-H Fair next week wants contestants for the above contest and others that will feature the evening program on Thursday night. Roth says that good prizes will be awarded the winner, that the saw will be sharp and a good log available to cut on. In addition to this contest there will be a chance to demonstrate how to swing an axe. These contests are only a few of the many that will feature the Thursday's evening entertainment at the fair.

This same night the Grand Rapids DeMolay Commandery band will furnish music between acts. Wednesday night's program will feature the annual 4-H livestock parade which will be more colorful this year because of two riding clubs. The newly organized Lowell Riding Horse Club will furnish the balance of that night's program and the Knapp family of Lansing, who come highly recommended as entertainers.

Tom Slater, who looks after the horse pulling contest, particularly the lightweights, tells me the entries are going to be heavy. We had a chance last week to see some of the 4-H club cattle that will be on exhibit. The youngsters are really getting their cattle in shape and they are going to be good to look at.

Remember, there are open classes in flowers, canning, vegetables, grain, fruit and potatoes. Cash prizes are paid. One exhibit will be missing because of the outbreak of a new poultry disease in the state. All poultry shows from now on are cancelled so our 4-H poultry club youngsters will have to be contented to show eggs only. Anyway, we will be looking for you next week at Lowell.

Jim Burnett, Hermit Kind to Youngsters

James Burnett, for upwards of 40 years known as "the hermit," was found dead in his cabin on Flat River, north of Lowell, last Friday afternoon by two 10-year-old Lowell boys, Vernon Vanneman and Robert Litschewski who had gone to check on Burnett's condition after he had told them Sunday he was ill. Deputy Sheriff Frank Stephens was notified and Coroner Simon LeRoy was called, who said that death was due to natural causes.

Burnett died as he had lived—alone. He told Frank Stephens recently that he was 76 years old last March.

Many legends have been told about Jim Burnett, one being that in his youth he had been disappointed in love. He had been a favorite with youngsters of two generations, always treating them kindly. He taught wood lore to the boys and enjoyed giving bitter-sweet and other wild flowers to the girls.

Committal services were held Saturday morning, the Rev. Paul Hoonstra officiating. Burial in the family lot in Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Burnett is survived by a sister, Mrs. Cora Dawson of Caledonia, and a brother living in Kalamazoo.

K. K. Vining, Kent County Agricultural Agent

The camp lodge fund is richer by nearly a hundred dollars. The Rockford livestock club gave $50. The boys had come money in their treasury. One of the dads said he would give as much as the boys. Three other dads agreed to do the same. The boys put up $10 and the fathers $40.

Maurice Thompson and Sons of Courtland gave $5 and the campers at the recent 4-H Farm Women's Camp gave $55.53. Watch for the pig at the 4-H Fair next week. He will be looking for your loose change.

Farm buildings are looking up in the county. Glenn Beusel in Sparta has given his barn a new coat of red paint. Glenn Hunsberger and Son Lyle of Plainfield have built a new barn to house their purebred Guernsey calves and bull. Also the Hunsbergers have painted their farm buildings white. Lynn Bradford and Son Norman in Sparta Township are building a new barn to replace the one lost by fire last spring.

Kent County has four farmers who grow certified seeds. D. A. McPherson of Vergennes and Ray-

Last Rites Held For Art T. Condon, Age 61

Art T. Condon, former resident of Lowell and Conklin and for many years a mill operator at the latter place, died Monday evening in St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids after a brief illness.

Mr. Condon resided the last four years in Grand Lodge where he was connected with the Grand Lodge Produce Company. He was born in Vergennes Township in 1885.

He leaves his wife, the former Ada Pettruff, his mother, Mrs. Oia Condon of Lowell, two daughters, Mrs. Rena Washburn of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Lucille Stockhill of Casnovia, four grandchildren and a brother, C. O. Condon of Lowell, R. 1. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Stockhill of Casnovia under the auspices of Lisbon Lodge, F. & A. M., of which he was a member. Burial in Alton cemetery.

Mrs. Ted Elhart Dies, Interment at Alton

Mrs. Ted Elhart, who had been in ill health several months, died Monday in Blodgett Memorial hospital in Grand Rapids. She was 47 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Elhart had lived in Holland a short time before purchasing their Moseley farm home. She leaves beside the husband one son, two daughters at home, a brother and sister. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Lowell Congregational church, N. G. Woon officiating. Burial in Alton cemetery.

Send your news to the Ledger.

Free Chest Clinics Offered to Adults During The 4-H Fair

Through cooperation of K. K. Vining, County Agricultural Agent and the Anti-tuberculosis Society of Kent County, plans are being made to offer free chest x-rays to all adults who attend the 4-H Club Fair in Lowell on August 21, 22 and 23. The General Electric Mobile X-ray Unit in a large white bus, which was recently purchased by the society with Christmas Seal funds will be placed under a tent between the exhibition buildings.

"In recent years it has been definitely proven that people may have one of three stages of tuberculosis and not know it," stated Blanche H. DeKoning, executive secretary of the tuberculosis society. "Even the far advanced stage sometimes does not show very definite symptoms but people afflicted with it should have treatment in order to save their lives and prevent spread of their infection to others. Our service is free to the public because it is supported by the public and this x-ray service is proving very popular. Most people are glad to have this opportunity for a check on their health. Because we reach children through the schools we are limiting this fair project to adults."

A & P Wins Top Place In Softball League

In a play-off game in the local softball league, the A & P team defeated the Moose team, 12 to 2 on Tuesday night at Recreation Park. The play-off was necessary when the two teams ended the season last Friday tied for the championship. The teams ended the season as follows:

	Won	Lost

Everyone enjoyed the fine potluck dinner and games of softball and horseshoes, not to mention the pleasure of renewing acquaintances of those not seen for some time. Jennie Kroff gave a short but interesting report on past family history and her note book held much interest for everyone.

It was voted that we hold another reunion again next year, the second Sunday of August at the same pleasant park. It is hoped that those who couldn't be with us this year will be sure to attend next year.—Mrs. Dell Kroff.

$3,100 IN GIFTS FOR LEGION BUILDING FUND

The first meeting of the Clark-Ellis post of the American Legion was held in their new building, the former East Ward School, on Monday night.

A report of the building committee chairman, William Christiansen, showed that the contributions toward the building have reached $3,100 to date. These contributions were made as follows: $2,000, C. H. Runciman; $1,000, Lowell Manufacturing Company; $100, Blue Star Mothers.

Common sense is very uncommon. It is only used by the more successful.

Wild West Show Thrills Galore

Fancy roping, riding, and shooting will be the order of the day on Sunday, Aug. 18, when the Clark-Ellis Post of the American Legion is staging a real western rodeo at Recreation Park at 2:30 p. m.

As an extra special event Texa: Joe Mix, formerly with the 101 Ranch and Flying X Rodeo will put on an exhibition of fancy rifle shooting. He will shoot into a specially constructed back-stop from positions such as standing on his head, over his shoulder, upside down, etc.

The rodeo was also fortunate to get his son, Jimmie Mix, who has recently been discharged from the Navy. While in service he traveled all over the world entertaining service men with exhibitions of fancy roping. He is considered to be one of the best young ropers in the country.

There will be plenty of seats along the side of the newly erected arena with a sound system to announce each rider and the events. A full afternoon of thrills and excitement is guaranteed. Plan to attend this real western style rodeo, one of the first of its kind in this section of the state.

A newsreel company is going to be on hand to film the rodeo and there will be plenty of action photos for everyone with a camera to take.

SERVICE CHECKS FOR RETURNING VETERANS

Returning veterans who were former employees of the Lowell Manufacturing Company are receiving a check for $10 each month as long as they remain in the employ of the company—limited only by the number of months they were in the service, or the number of months they were in the employ of the company prior to their induction, whichever is the lesser.

At the annual picnic, which was held August 3, at Fallsburg Park, Elmer Schaefer, Works Manager, awarded Horace Myers and Lloyd Powell a certificate to this effect. Darrell Swanson who is again working at the factory is also eligible.

THIS WEEK'S SERMON

By PAUL Z. HOONSTRA

Text: 1 THESS. 5: 24, "Faithful is he that calleth you who also will do it."

Introduction: Last week we learned that God calls man to righteousness. Today let us consider God's call to service. Man's Avenue of Service will be the will and the plan of God, and he must clear. God will not let then God will honor that man with the honest man be ignorant of how success. Yes, God calls man to service. Faithful is He that calleth you certain that wash recruit knows (to service) who also will do it for sure just how he can best (perform that service through you successfully.) Have you been of 1. Man's Service Will be made service to Christ today?

Singers make a reputation by singing songs that please their hearers and then wreck their reputation by singing songs that are not pleasing to their hearers. Some people have an idea that what they don't know is not worth knowing. And what they do know they are not worth knowing, according to what others think.

FERTILIZE 2 CROPS THIS FALL

When buying fertilizer for your fall seedings, remember that you are fertilizing two crops. After the grains are harvested next year, there must still be plenty of potash available in the soil to insure a healthy growth of clover or alfalfa. Your fertilizer application should be ample for both crops. A 2-ton yield of clover hay requires 2 1/3 times as much potash as is needed to produce 30 bushels of wheat.

Use 200-400 lbs. of 3-12-12, 3-9-18, 0-12-12, 0-20-20, or 0-10-20 per acre for fall seedings. Consult your official agricultural advisers to determine the best grade suited for your needs. See your fertilizer dealer and order recommended grades.

Write us for free information and literature on the practical fertilization of crops.

TAKING HIS TURN

The Scotchman and his wife went into a restaurant where they each ordered a sandwich. The waiter noticed that the man was not eating, so he approached him and said: "Don't you enjoy your sandwich, sir?"

The Smart

John-Do you think a clever man makes a good husband? Jerry-How did you get that? John-The real trouble is getting a clever man to make any kind of a husband!

Trumble

John-You ought to see the nice lady opener Brown just got in his office. Smith-Just wait till his wife sees her!

Scotchish Jokes

John-How did you cure your Scotch boy friend of stuttering? John-I called him on long distance collect!

Geographical

Teacher-Which state holds the record for the most? Jim-I don't know! Teacher-Correct, Idaho!

Strictly Fresh

Graco-Do we need any new-look eggs? Helper-No. We have enough to last for a couple of months.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Dad-Will you teach me or can't you? Sonny-Pie. Dad (trying to teach him manners)-Pie, what? Sonny-Pie, what!

Can't Be Done

Mrs. Smith-I was quite out-spoken at the club last night. Mr. Smith-I can believe it, dear. Who out-spoke you?

I have never seen a stuttering, or tongue-tied woman.

Faithfully Yours

While the King Milling Company's flours are distributed on a national and even international basis, the mill is essentially and distinctively a Lowell institution. It furnishes a market for Michigan Farmers' wheat and keeps the feed production from this wheat in our local territory. During the entire period of flour and feed shortage there was never a time when King's flours could not be secured at the Lowell grocery stores.

Your favorite grocer can always supply you with PURE GOLD, KING'S FLAKE, SINCERITY or KING'S SPECIAL BREAD flours.

He had a cheese factory and was doing big business. He invested his profits in steel and oil stocks about which he knew nothing, and lost his money. He immediately quit advertising his cheese, reduced his sales force and discharged many other employees hoping to regain his losses and that wrecked his cheese business.

Expressions, actions and deeds are so often backed up with the "ax-to-grind" idea that we long to meet a real honest man.

A farmer first prepares his soil, then he sows the seed. A good salesman will prepare the prospect to receive his solicitation before he makes it.

'Mighty I' Will Make Japs Pay

Destroyer, Victim of Direct Suicide Hit, Is Ready to Add to Heavy Toll.

SAN FRANCISCO.—A great rent gapes in her hull, 15 of her enlisted men are dead and 30 wounded, but the destroyer USS Ingraham will split the seas again with her trim nose for another crack at the Japs.

The 2,200-ton "tin can," now in drydock for repairs at Hunter's Point, San Francisco, survived a direct hit by a Japanese suicide plane early in May north of Okinawa, and came home under her own power, the 12th naval district announced, according to the Associated Press.

Before receiving this nearly mortal wound the Ingraham had taken a heavy toll. She was instrumental in sinking three enemy vessels, and destroyed six of the seven suicide planes which chose her as their target in the flaming fury of a dawn attack by 70 to 80 Japanese aircraft of all types.

Nicknamed the "Mighty I" by her crew, the Ingraham was operating on the edge of the East China sea with another battle famed destroyer, the Morrison, when she was hit.

Moved in for Kill.
Enemy scout planes sighted the two craft during the night. As daylight came the big suicide squadron moved in for the kill, diving from all directions at the destroyers and their smaller support craft.

Lt. John D. Brink, USNR, San Diego, Calif., Ingraham gunnery officer, said the Japanese threw all available planes from modern fighters to old twin-engine float craft into the battle.

The Morrison was struck and badly damaged. The Mighty I steamed to her aid firing "at everything in sight." Then seven Jap suicide pilots peeled off toward the Ingraham. The ship's gunners knocked down six of them in two furious, action-packed minutes.

The seventh bored through the barrage of steel from all available ack-ack guns and crashed into the vessel's side at the water line, ramming into the crew's mess hall with its bomb exploding in the generator room.

Flames swept through the stricken ship, and she settled in the water until her decks were within five feet of being awash. Overhead other Japanese fliers poised to deal the death blow, but American combat air patrolmen sent them plunging into the sea by the score and none reached the Ingraham.

Helps Protect Carriers.
Forty minutes later rescue tugs took the crippled destroyer in tow and pulled her to safety.

The Ingraham, one of the Barton class of big destroyers, participated in the Leyte island, Philippines, and other Southwest Pacific engagements before reaching the high mark of her 14-month career while escorting American carriers in strikes at the Tokyo-Yokohama area.

In late February she was off Iwo Island pounding enemy shore installations with her 5-inch guns. A short time later she joined the destroyer pack in protecting United States carriers softening up Okinawa for invasion.

Idle British Workmen Shout 'We Want Work'

LONDON.—Eight thousand employees of the Napier engineering factories in suburban Acton marched into Hyde Park shouting: "We want work!"

About 2,000 of the workers had been declared "redundant"—no longer needed on war work—and the remainder declared a strike in sympathy. Demonstrators carried banners bearing the slogans "We produced for war; we can produce for peace" and "Unemployment appeared in 1918, has this war been in vain?"

Pilot Escapes When Chute Tangles on Burning Plane

MANILA.—Lt. Dan Bradley, Detroit, escaped death spectacularly while 100 doughboys watched.

Jap fire set his dive-bomber ablaze. He zoomed and jumped but his parachute caught and the fier was yanked behind the burning ship. About 100 feet from the ground the plane rolled and the chute slipped free.

It opened and the pilot landed unhurt, near gaping Japs.

Americans hustled him through to safety.
