

Village Caucus Monday, Feb. 18 Might Be Last

As the time nears for the village caucus Monday night, Feb. 18, there seems to be more interest shown than in the past few years. Time was when most people were interested in the selection of candidates for the various offices and in 1948 hand bills were circulated and more than 300 citizens were in attendance at the caucus. Since that time comparatively few show up at the appointed time to help nominate the candidates.

May Be Last Caucus This may be Lowell's last village caucus if the proposition of nominating by the primary system should receive a favorable vote. This proposition will be on the ballot at this spring election.

Seeking Renomination The present incumbents, all of whom are seeking renomination Monday night, have served many years on the council and in village offices. Council members up for re-election are W. A. Roth and William Christiansen with eighteen years each, and L. W. Rutherford with fourteen years service.

Peter Speersta, village president, was elected for the first time in 1946 and has served continuously since that time. Mrs. Esther Fahri has been village treasurer eight years; Louis Kingsley, village clerk, three years, and Frank Freeman, assessor two years.

Lowell Boy Scouts Effect Achievements In Historical Camp

Boy Scouts of Troop No. 102 and leaders returned Sunday from an overnight camping trip to Yankee Springs in the state park area near Middleville.

There were thirteen boys and four adults on the trip. J. Baird, J. Bergin, J. Batey, J. White, R. White, T. Pinkney, R. Shaler, W. Covert, G. Henderson, B. Collins, L. Ketchum, V. Jeluso, N. McKeun and Phil Johnson, J. Drooger, H. Hilschoff and J. Bergin.

They report an exceptionally good time, spending the night in a log cabin with fireplace in each end, beds, and other conveniences in this historic spot. The boys learned where Yankee Springs got its name and many interesting things about its history. Also several second and first class achievements were accomplished over the week end.

Guests of Rotary Club Boy Scouts were guests of the Rotary club at the luncheon last week and made demonstrations of starting fire with flint and steel, knot tying, constructed a miniature log tower with lashings and sent messages with signal code.

Zoning Need Keenly Felt In Most Urban-Rural Areas

Both the Village and Township of Lowell Have Ordinances Under Consideration Planning Started Two Years Ago

With both the village of Lowell and the township of Lowell having zoning ordinances under consideration at the present time the Ledger is presenting an article on zoning that was written by Raleigh Bonlow and Elton H. Moore for Michigan State College publication, Michigan Farm Economics. The great need in this community for planned development is very clear to almost all citizens. We feel that both the council which has been sitting on a zoning ordinance for nearly two years, and the township board which expects to have a zoning ordinance ready in a few weeks should expedite their passage.

Basketball Fans See Varsity Play Faculty Feb. 20

Pro-Basketball fans are looking forward to the game scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 20, when Lowell's Varsity Reserves Basketball squad meets the challenge made by the Undeclared Faculty. Five. Games to start at 7:30 in the High School gymnasium.

This game should be an especially interesting and well matched contest, predicted by those who have seen the rivals at play. There will be a preliminary between the 7th and 8th graders who will begin their play at 6:30.

This is a benefit game and all proceeds are to be added to the Bleachers Fund. It is hoped a large enthusiastic crowd will be present.

Woodlot Management Demonstrated Feb. 19 At Nelson Potter Farm

A woodlot analysis field trip has been scheduled on Feb. 19, 1952, 2 p. m. at the Nelson Potter farm at Campbell Lake on 84th St., a mile and a quarter east of Whiteville Ave.

Mr. Potter has been managing his woodlot for some time utilizing the materials removed for farm construction and improvement.

The object of the analysis will be to determine the growth in the woodlot so Mr. Potter will know how much he will be able to remove each year and keep his stand in good condition. In the past it has been mostly a job of sanitation, removing the trees that should come out to improve the stand.

The woodlot has been protected from fire and pasturing since Mr. Potter has owned the farm and this protection is beginning to show results. In addition to the woodlot being in better condition now than it was when Mr. Potter started working it, he has some good buildings from the material removed.

Anyone interested in managing their woodlot or doing construction work with home grown materials should try to make this trip.

This trip is under the joint sponsorship of Lloyd Cogswell, district forester, Michigan Dept. of Conservation and Homer Patterson, veteran training institute, Caledonia.

Anyone interested in managing their woodlot or doing construction work with home grown materials should try to make this trip.

Except for two townships, all of the zoned townships are found in the southern counties. There is a logical reason for this. Township zoning is used mostly to give direction to the future development of rural areas and more specifically to discourage sub-standard, slumlike and unsightly developments.

The GREATEST need for this type of action exists in suburban areas around the larger cities, in rural areas that border upon heavily-travelled highways, and in popular resort areas. Most of our zoned townships are so located that they feel the suburbanization push from industrial and metropolitan centers.

Under the terms of the state enabling act, townships are authorized 1) to designate districts within which the proper use of land for agriculture, forestry, recreation, industry, trade, soil conservation, water supply conservation, and other purposes may be encouraged, regulated or prohibited by ordinance; and 2) to set up regulations for any building erected or altered in the future regarding its location, size and use, the number of families to be housed in it, and open spaces and sanitary and safety measures required.

Community To Observe World Day of Prayer Here Friday, Feb. 29

Women of this community will unite in services this year at the Congregational Church Friday, Feb. 29.

The day of prayer has been observed in the United States since 1887, having originated as a day of prayer for missions.

In 1920 Women of Canada joined the Women of America and together dedicated the first Friday in Lent as the Day of Prayer for Missions.

In 1927, the Day of Prayer for Missions, became for the first time the World Day of Prayer.

In 1942 the United Council of Church Women accepted the lovely and sacred responsibility for the World Day of Prayer.

The purpose of the observance is to unite Christians around the world in prayer for Missions at home and abroad.

In these days of international tension it is heartening to find that religious groups throughout the world will pause and give thought to interdenominational ties.

The service will be observed in 104 countries this year. Last year service was held in 17,000 communities in the U. S. A.

Kent Co. School Building Draft Seems Necessary

By Lynn H. Clark, County Supt. of Schools

In the last two and a half years about four million dollars for school buildings has been approved by the voters outside of the city of Grand Rapids. Birth rates of the nation, state, and county indicate that the school population will double by about 1960. In order to meet the demands of this increase the $4,000,000 mentioned before is only a nice start on the final total.

Statistics indicate that the elementary enrollment in first to sixth grade will rise to an overall total of about 25,000 children shortly after 1960 and the high schools in grades seven to twelve will enroll about 20,000 children which is a total of 45,000 or more than twice as many as the 21,154 at the close of school last spring. Since some schools do not have a kindergarten this grade is not included in the 45,000.

This means that a total of about 20 billion dollars worth of school buildings must be built by the time we reach the peak enrollment and about equally divided between elementary and high school. Some very careful planning will be necessary so that we do not overbuild for a particular purpose or badly locate those that are built. Some careful long range planning is needed.

13th Annual Conference The 13th annual citizens conference on education will be held in Lansing on Thursday, March 6. The theme will be "Moral and Spiritual Education for Children and Youth." Dr. Lee M. Thurston, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has again requested that I send the names of presidents and leaders of organizations in the county who are interested in attending this worthwhile meeting. If you fall in the above category, call GL 6-554 ext. 47 and leave your name, address, and the organization you represent.

Ernest Reuh, a member of the County Board of Education and of the 4-H Fair Board, is interested in raising the level of entertainment for the evening program at the Lowell Fair. He suggests that a choir contest be held for church choirs outside of the city of Grand Rapids. Choirs would be divided into two classes with those from villages and suburban areas in one group and country churches in another. Prizes would be given for each group. May I have the names of ministers and choir members who read this article.

Red Arrows Score Gd. Valley Upset Against Godwin

The Lowell Red Arrows scored the biggest upset of the season when they geared up on the Godwin Wolverines at the local gym last Friday night. The Arrows not only defeated the visitors but squelched any title aspirations that they might have had.

The Wolverines came to town after soundly trouncing Grand Rapids' Class A South High earlier in the week. In a previous encounter which ended with the score tied up at 13 all, Coach Howe's lads did an excellent job tying up Ypsa, the Valley's leading scorer. The Arrows poured in 25 points to Godwin's 11 to take a 28 to 24 halftime lead.

Both teams battled on even terms throughout the first quarter which ended with the score tied up at 13 all. Coach Howe's lads did an excellent job tying up Ypsa, the Valley's leading scorer. The Arrows poured in 25 points to Godwin's 11 to take a 28 to 24 halftime lead.

Brown and Rosenberg tied for scoring honors for Lowell with 17 points each followed by Topp with 9. Bob Grummil, Lowell's lanky sophomore, contributed greatly to the Arrow's cause with his excellent rebound work. Roth, Faulkner, in fact every man who played in the game is to be complimented on a job well done. Ypsa was high man for Godwin with 18 points, followed by VerHulst with 9.

In the preliminary game the Godwin reserves defeated the Arrow reserves by a 52 to 37 margin.

Grandville Here Friday This Friday the Arrows will play host to Grandville in the final home game of the season. Any time that Lowell and Grandville meet in any sport a real contest is in store for the fans. If you are a Red Arrows fan you owe it to yourself and the team to turn out for this last home game of the season. The two second teams will meet at 7 o'clock. Follow the Arrows.

Grade Teams Play Games

The Lowell 7 and 8th graders under the direction of Bob Perry are playing a schedule of games with teams of like grades in nearby townships. Last Friday the Lowell 8th graders defeated the Rockford 8th graders at Rockford in a 20 to 18 overtime tussle. The Lowell 7th graders bowed to the Rockford 7th graders 24 to 14. Outstanding in the 8th grade game was DeVries with 18 points.

This week the grade school lads will travel to Belding on Saturday.

Many Lowell Citizens Attend Lincoln Dinner

The twenty-five or thirty Lowell people who attended the Lincoln Day dinner in Grand Rapids Saturday evening are enthusiastic in their reactions to the address of Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, in which he pointed up an effective program which should be followed to make a good solid platform for the coming presidential campaign.

Congressman Gerald R. Ford, Jr. was present and introduced the speaker with remarks which proved "Jerry" is well informed of the affairs in Washington.

Eighth Grade

This Monday the members of the class that were elected officers gave speeches of acceptance. Last Friday the 8th grade boys played Rockford in basketball. The score was 20-18 favor of Lowell. The 8th grade including Junior High school will be selling tickets to the Lowell-Grandville game here this Friday. The purpose of this ticket sale is to build up class treasures. We make 30 per cent profit from each ticket we sell.

Gail McMahon, Secretary.

Carl Wittenbach 20 Years Owner Of Photo Farm

Carl Wittenbach, living four miles southeast of Lowell on Peck Lake Rd., is owner and operator of the fine 120-acre farm which was shown in last week's Ledger Farm Photo Quiz, and called at this office Saturday morning to identify the picture and claim the gift certificates provided by the sponsoring merchants.

Mr. Wittenbach purchased this place some twenty years ago which was well known at that time as the Truman Parsons farm. He follows a routine of general farming on this 120 and also works another forty, raising quantities of hay and grain and keeping a herd of 32 head of Jersey cattle and sells Grade A milk. He has been a member of the DHIA for three years.

Mrs. Wittenbach raises broilers and sells around 2000 every year. Being a good brick mason and handy with construction work, Mr. Wittenbach spends much of his spare time repairing, remodeling and improving the buildings, and erecting new ones. At present he is replastering the interior of his house which he has modernized recently, and he also finds time to help others.

During the past ten years the Wittenbachs have modernized the house, rebuilt the barn and erected a new corn crib, cow stable, four chicken coops, milk house, two hog houses, toolshed, gas house, and granary. The latter was under construction at the time the picture was taken and has been completed since.

Mrs. Wittenbach is the former Helen Gregory of Cascade and is a graduate of Lowell high school. She is active in the South Boston Extension Group, the Ladies Aid Society of Cascade and Blue Star Mothers of Lowell. Both are active members of the Ionis County Farm Bureau and Church of Christ of Cascade which they regularly attend.

Mr. Wittenbach is a member of Lowell Lodge F. & A. M. and Mrs. Wittenbach is a member of Cyclamen Chapter O. E. S. in which organizations they are very active.

The Wittenbachs have two children, a son George, and a daughter, Mrs. Betty Smiley, who live nearby and seven grandsons. Mrs. Wittenbach's mother is Mrs. George Gregory, lifelong resident of Cascade, and Mr. Wittenbach's mother is Mrs. Chris Wittenbach, longtime resident of Vergennes.

Overheated Iron Is Harmful to Rayon

There are times in life when we do not strike when the iron is hot. One of those times is when we iron rayon. A Michigan State College clothing specialist, on a rayon blouse or slip the fading together of two thicknesses, or the shiny patches around buttons and shoulder seams are sure indications that the iron was too hot, reports Josephine Martin of the textile, clothing and related arts department at M.S.C. All rayons must be given cool-iron treatment, she says, but special care should be taken with acetate rayon that tends to wilt and shiver more readily than another common rayon, viscose. The trouble is, there is no real means of identifying acetate or viscose from the fabric itself unless the garment is labeled. So best be safe with a cool iron for all rayons. By "cool" she means 100 degrees or less.

Traffic Fatality List Highest in Ten Years

December has proven itself to be the most disastrous month in history for accidents in Michigan. It also made quite a record for snow-fall in 1951.

The 1951 traffic fatality list had 1,646 persons listed, highest in ten years. The 1941 report was 2,153 lives claimed in traffic accidents.

Proceedings of Common Council (Official)

A regular meeting of the Common Council of the Village of Lowell was held in the Council Rooms of the City Hall, Monday evening, January 13, 1952.

The meeting was called to order by the Village President, Peter Speersta, at 8:15 p. m.

Trustees Present: Schafer, Mulder, Elzinga, Rutherford, Both and Christensen.

Trustees Absent: None.

The minutes of the last regular meeting of January 7, 1952 were read and approved.

The report of the Police Department activities for the period of January 1 to January 29, 1952 was read and ordered placed on file.

The Clerk read a petition submitted by Bernard Kroff and signed by seventy-three (73) residents of the Village of Lowell, requesting the Council to submit on the ballot at the next regular election the question as to whether the Village shall change to the Primary System of elections in lieu of the Caucus method of nominating candidates for Village offices.

The Village Attorney informed the Council that they could do away with the Office of Marshal, if they so desired. The Police Department was asked to discuss this subject at their next committee meeting and report their recommendations to the Council at the next regular meeting.

Gene Rondot of the Lowell Police Department brought to the attention of the Council the fact that the Department has no one designated as Chief with authority to instruct or detail work to be done by the officers. Mr. Rondot pointed out that a more uniform system of duties and special assigned details could be had if one person was head of the department.

Little Farmer

Chemicals Kill Brush Landowners Are Told

Brush growing in or along drainage ditches may now be controlled with water application of brush killer sprays applied to the bark just above the ground line, landowners are told.

This treatment permits the use of brush killers in areas where spraying is not practical. It may be done at any time of the year. Now is a good time to do it when other farm work isn't so pressing.

The agronomist urged farmers to control brush and tall-growing weeds in and along the sides of drainage ditches to keep them flowing properly. A little maintenance each year or two will eliminate costly cleaning later on, he pointed out.

Nature's Classroom "Outdoors Wisdom" Conservation Film

How to build a better boy and girl, by making fullest use of nature's outdoor classroom, is demonstrated in the new conservation department color film "Outdoors Wisdom."

Now available for loan to groups and organizations, the film records actual experiences of several organized youth, as well as a adult, groups in one-day to two-week camps in state recreation areas.

Using the learn-by-doing method, youngsters supplement their "four-wall" schooling by tackling a range of tasks, and inspecting and studying forests, streams and other conservation projects.

ITV, more than the city youth learning that water doesn't simply pour from a faucet," comments C. J. Tucker, department film producer. "Participating in a deer drive gives the boy a concept of the Michigan deer problem the Requests for loan film prints should be sent to the department's circulation division, Lansing. Transportation charges are the only cost to the borrower.

ORANGE TWISTS

- 1 pkg. yeast, compressed or dry
- 3 cups sifted enriched King's Flour (about)
- 1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1 tbs shredded orange rind
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 tbs melted butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup melted shortening
- 1 tbs shredded orange rind

Soften yeast in water. To orange juice add sugar, salt and shortening. Add 1 cup flour and beat well. Add softened yeast, egg and orange rind. Mix well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in a warm place until doubled (about 2 hours). When light, punch down. Let rest 10 minutes. Roll out to rectangle 12x18 inches. Brush with butter or margarine and sprinkle with Orange Sugar. Fold over in thirds to form rectangle 12x6 inches. With sharp knife cut into strips 3/4 inch wide and 6 inches long. Roll ends of each strip in opposite directions and bring together to form circle. Seal ends and place on greased baking sheet. Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Makes about 16 Orange Twists.

Kent Ag. Topics

Notes from Kent County Extension

Grass silage so often comes up as a topic of discussion among farmers. Some praise it and some condemn it. Victor Weller at Rockford has something good to say about it. He says that he has not fed a pound of protein supplement since he started feeding grass silage and that his production has not fallen off one bit.

If you want trees for reforestry get your orders in early. Supply may be rather short this year.

We heard a good formula for successful swine production. We would like to pass it on to you.

There seems to be a big demand for bred gilts. Prices should be better on feeder pigs and finished hogs. Watch for the fifth annual bred gilt sale to be held at Lowell on March 12. Six breeds of high quality hogs will be sold.

February 14 is an important day for 4-H club leaders. The 4-H leader training meeting will start at 2:00 p. m. Time out for a complimentary dinner at 6:00 p. m. and more meeting until 9:30 p. m. All leaders should attend! Meeting to be held at the 4-H Club Lodge, Bostwick Lake.

Baking pans, casseroles and other baking utensils have been disappearing from the 4-H lodge. If your group has used them for baking home left over food please see that they are returned. The last few meals prepared by the ladies have been seriously hampered by the lack of this equipment.

We have some good Guernsey heifers for 4-H club projects. Call us for more information.

21 4-H Service Club members from Kent County returned home from their annual Snow Camp at Traverse City. Everyone had a wonderful time—no sprains, no broken bones—just a few bruises.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear wife and mother who passed away Feb. 17, 1951, one year ago.

You ask us not to weep and mourn And promise that we'd meet again, But tears are natural to the heart That death has filled with pain.

So if we shed a secret tear, And after breathe a sigh, Forgive us for we miss you more As every day goes by.

Home Economist Discovers Ways To Ease Budget

With some meat prices soaring into the luxury class, it takes close planning to feed growing children who need abundant amounts of protein. Mary Lewis of the foods and nutrition department at Michigan State College has some schemes, however, that may help keep the lid on the budget.

Fish have as much protein content as meat and it is generally less expensive, so try the family on some new menus keyed with fish, she suggests. And canned meats that have little waste are often good buys. She reminds us of corned beef that can be perked up in casseroles or combined with salad dressing for hearty sandwiches.

Growing boys who seem to require third and fourth servings of meat can be satisfied with side dishes rich in protein, such as macaroni and cheese, or lima-bean casserole. Miss Lewis points out that adolescents digest food more rapidly, so they need the staying qualities of hearty foods like meats, gravies, beans and cheese. And if the boys seem to be eating unreasonable amounts, remember this—it takes a half to three-quarters more protein for an adolescent as it does for an adult.

Save the leftover meats for another meal and have peanut butter and plain yellow cheese on hand for sandwiches and snacks. Stretch lunches with servings of cottage cheese, another protein food.

Another bit of advice that Miss Lewis passes along is the use of dried milk for cream or pumpkin pies. Dried milk can be used in all cooking and is considerably less expensive than bottle milk.

THE CELEBRITY REVIEWED AT DESERT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Norman Borgerson was hostess to the Monday Book Club for desert luncheon and review on Feb. 11.

"The Celebrity" by Laura Z. Hobson, was reviewed by Mrs. E. C. Foreman, guest, in a most interesting way. It was a story depicting an author's viewpoint of the development of events following the publication of a best seller.
